Firefighters' National Memorial Day

Lloydminster, AB/SK – In honour of Firefighters' National Memorial Day, the Canadian flag at City Hall will be at half-mast from sunrise to sunset on Sunday, September 10, 2017.

On August 25, 2017, The Honourable Ralph Goodale, Minister for Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness, announced the establishment of the Firefighters' National Memorial Day. The day will serve as a tribute to firefighters lost in the line of duty.

More than 1,300 Canadian firefighters have died on duty since 1848, according to the Canadian Fallen Firefighters Foundation.
